Now is the time to subscribe, that all may begin with this splendid tale. Will not our good friends represent the winter attractions of the Star to their neighbors, and get them to subscribe.

Senator Chase will please accept our acknowledgements, for Stansbury's Expedition to the very valuable work, the receipt of which is highly appreciated.

Snow .- It commenced snowing on Saturday night last, and on Sabbath morning the fields were whitened, presenting a dreary, wintry appearance.

The Orpheans.

These distinguished vocalists gave a Concert at the Universalist House on Saturday evening last, and were repeatedly and warmly applauded by a highly entertained audience.

IMPROVEMENT .- Messis. Swift & Hopkins are filling up the "swamp ho'e" on their village lots west of the Depot. This is one of the greatest improvements lately made in our village. An uneightly swamp is converted into a lid ground, making a beautiful building lot, while of course no stagnant pools remain, to affect, as formerly, the health try. of the neighborhood. Dwellings are going up in considerable numbers west of the Depot, and Swifand Hopkin's addition of lots, affords some very fine situations for residences.

The Green Mountain Boys, A HISTORICAL TALE OF THE EARLY SETTLE

MENT OF VERMINT. By the Au hor of Mary Martin, or the Money Diggers; Locke Amsden, or the Schoolmister, &c.

This is truly an American work, by an Ameri can author, in which hist rical facts are so blended with the creations of fancy that one not versed in the former would fail to note the line of separation. It is a fair exemplification of the romance of history, and proves conclusively that the period following the first settlement of our Country up to the close of the Revolutionary war, is as fertile ground for the writer of fiction as any other port on of the world's history. The writer of this tale is a c.t.en of Vermont, and he has made it the medium communicating many historical incidents of thrilling interest which are to be found in no place but the traditions and urchives of that State. The leading characters are thridingly historical and are called by hame. The taking of "Old Teentaraga." by Col. Ethan Allen, " in the name of the Great Jeh vah and the Continental Congress," is most graphically described. A clear view of the struggles of the first settlers of the "New Hampshire Gran s," with the authorities of the State of Now York, is also given. In short it is a verifiable otype, which the Hon. gentleman says is the best likeness of him yet taken. Every true Free Soiler should have a mance, with nothing objec is subtle belonging to the latter. It is just the work for a Vermonter at high and low, rich and poor can have a copy. home or abroad. THIS INSTITUTE has been persuing a successful course for two terms, and has received a large measure of public favor and confidence. The building is spacious and elegant, and well adapted to schodastic purposes, and is furnished with the necessary requisites for an Institution of the kind. This Institution occupies an eminently distrable position. It is in the midst of an intelligent and Moral community, and is surrounded by a healthy and beautiful country. It is also easy of access, lying on the line of the Cleveland and Pittsburgh Rail Road. The number of students in attendance during the last term, was upwards of ninety, which exceeded our mest sanguine expectations.

During all this time I could take but little of even the most easily digested food, that little causing distress. Doctors told me that I had the Dyspepsia; that my stomach, liver and kidneys were all diseased, and the nervous system seriously debilitated. A ceronic Diarrhoza followed me constantly, until some time after commencing your medicine. I was a pertion of the time able to ride, and in the syning of So, concluded as a last attempt to travel. I reached Saratoga Springs and spent several weeks there, under the care of Dr. Allen; thence to Newport, R. I., reaturing hyme in October, in miscrable health and broken spirits. The next spring I was shown the statement of Mr. I. Matthews, of Akron. His symptoms, many of them, were so strikingly like my own, that I was induced to see him.
